it was found that the horse was dead, his life having been choked out by the snake.—[Elmira Advertiser. Colonel Bob Ingersoll, who has been stopping at the Hoffman House, was shown the magnificent bar with its expensive trappings. He is an out-and-out temperance man now, and after taking in all the glitter and magnificence he re-marked: "This is the most orthodox show I've seen. You can deal out hell fire here and believe you're in heaven while doing it." Then some one told him it was a place where all the clergy-men came, and that the infidels were trying to have it abolished.—[N. Y.
